

PROOF OF RESIDENCE IN ALBERTA USING COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

One method of providing proof of Residence in Alberta is to provide a letter prepared by one or more eligible guarantors. A guarantor is a person other than the applicant (or family member) who can confirm the applicant's day-to-day presence in Alberta during the period of December 1, 2024, to May 18, 2025.

Applicants:

- 1) May request a guarantor letter by email or telephone for those offices that conduct business online. Guarantors must independently write letters and remain available for contact by email and/or telephone from June 15 to September 15, 2025. Guarantors must adhere to Guarantor Letter Guidelines.
- 2) Must upload guarantor letters directly to their electronic application.
- 3) Provide the AIMG Program with one (or a series of) guarantor letter(s) to cover the full period. Letters lacking sufficient detail to verify an applicant's residency in Alberta may result in potential ineligibility.

Who is eligible to be a Guarantor?

1. Must be a person of recognized authority within a formal Alberta community activity-based society/corporation/religious organization who can guarantee the applicant is and has been an active and consistent participant or volunteer during the time indicated above.

Examples:

- Spiritual leader of religious services which you regularly attend
- Supervisor of unpaid or volunteer work, e.g. the teacher of the classroom in which you regularly volunteer.
- Director of a recognized non-profit organization of which you are a member or volunteer
- Leader/instructor of a recreational activity in which you regularly participate
- Instructor of a continuing education or professional development class which you regularly attend
