

PROOF OF RESIDENCE IN ALBERTA USING A GUARANTOR

One method of providing proof of Residence in Alberta is to provide a letter prepared by one or more eligible guarantors. A guarantor is a person, other than the applicant or an applicant's family member, who can confirm the applicant's day-to-day physical presence in Alberta during the period of December 1, 2025, to May 18, 2026.

Who is eligible to be a Guarantor?

1. Must be a person of recognized authority within a formal Alberta community activity-based society/corporation/religious organization who can guarantee the applicant is and has been an active and consistent participant or volunteer throughout the entire time indicated above.

Examples:

- Spiritual leader of religious services which you regularly attend
  - Supervisor of unpaid or volunteer work e.g. The teacher of the classroom in which you regularly volunteer.
  - Director of a recognized non-profit organization of which you are a member or volunteer
  - Leader/instructor of a recreational activity in which you regularly participate
  - Instructor of a continuing education or professional development class which you regularly attend
2. Must be 18 years of age or older
  3. Must be present in Alberta for the entire period indicated above
  4. Must be available for contact by the AIMG Program weekdays during the daytime throughout the file review period (June 15 to September 18, 2026)
  5. Must be able to confirm the location and duration of the applicant's participation in the organization
  6. CANNOT be an individual who is applying to the AIMG Program 2027 Cycle or a family member or a person residing at the same address as the applicant; and,
  7. Must understand that deceptive or fabricated documentation provided on behalf of the applicant to the AIMG PROGRAM is sufficient cause for the AIMG PROGRAM to disqualify the applicant's application from this cycle and potentially future AIMG Program cycles.

Guarantor must perform the following tasks free of charge:

1. Independently prepare the guarantor letter (letter content checklist on next page). Applicant must not assist the guarantor with execution of the letter and,
2. Be available for contact by the AIMG Program weekdays during the daytime throughout the file review period (June 15 to September 18, 2026) to confirm the applicant's presence in Alberta and the details within the letter prepared by the guarantor.

What is a recognized Alberta community activity-based organization?

1. An organization, business or society which is registered in Alberta under the Societies Act, Business Corporations Act, School Act, Municipal Government Act or Religious Societies Land Act; OR
2. An organization that offers activities, ideally social in nature, which require the applicant to participate and be physically present in Alberta.

*All proofs provided are subject to AIMG Program source verification.

Community Guarantor / Individual Guarantor - Letter Guidelines

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that letter(s) in support of the applicant's AIMG Program application contain(s) all the following:

- Printed on the organization's letterhead (if community organization) which includes the organization's logo, full official name of the organization, street/ mailing address, and website address
- OR
- Name and address of an individual guarantor (if not a community organization)
- Date the letter was prepared (must be dated between May 1 and June 5, 2026)
- Applicant's name
- Applicant's address
- Applicant's relationship to the organization (i.e. member, volunteer, parent) or individual (i.e. neighbor, patron, customer)
- Activity/activities information:
  - description of the activity/activities
  - specific dates for each activity and the frequency of participation, i.e. start and end date of activity plus specific dates in attendance (e.g. weekly on Tuesdays)
- Street address where the activity took place
- Daytime phone number of the guarantor. (Must be available for contact by the AIMG Program during the file review period as indicated by the dates above.)
- Signature of the guarantor, including their title if within an organization

Note to Applicants:

- More than one letter may be provided to cover the required residency period; this may be a combination of guarantor, employment, and institutional letters. If one letter does not strongly substantiate an applicant's proof of residence in Alberta, multiple letters MUST be provided to sufficiently cover the time period.
- Guarantor letters from friends, spouses, and family members will NOT be accepted.
- The guarantor must be able to substantiate the applicant's presence in Alberta for the eligibility timeframe through specific descriptions of activities undertaken by the applicant. It is worth noting that descriptions of an applicant's children's activities do not constitute sufficient proof of the applicant's physical presence in the province.
- Letters of Tenancy will NOT be accepted. Letters from landlords, real estate agents, or purchase agreements/proof of sale documents will NOT be accepted or reviewed.

*All proofs provided are subject to AIMG Program source verification.